Read the following letter from V. H. LEVINGE, Esq., Collector of Madura, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Fort Saint George, dated Madura, 16th November 1860, No. 233.

SIR,

1. I have the honor to submit for the information of the Board, translation of an Arzi from the Government Vakíl of the Madura Civil Court, dated the 13th instant, from which the Board will see that the present Zamíndár of Rámnád and Sivaswámi Taver, the parties in the special Appeal Suit now before the Privy Council relating to the Estate of Rámnàd, have determined to compromise the Suit, on the condition of the former paying the latter a sum of Rupees 50,000 with a monthly allowance of Rupees 700, and a village yielding an annual income of 1,000 Rupees.

Translation of an Arzi from the Government Vakíl, to the Collector of Madura, dated 13th November 1860, and numbered 62.

1. The Vakíls on behalf of Purvadavurdany Natchyar, the Zamíndár of Rámnád and 1st Defendant in Suit No. 2 of 1860, on the file of the Civil Court, and on behalf of Sivaswámi Taver, a supplemental Defendant in O. S. No. 3 of 1856, have this day presented Vakalutnamahs at the Civil Court, notifying the intention of both parties to file a Razinamah in England and at the Court of Sudder Adálat, with a view to compromise the Suit which is now pendinn in England, on Special Appeal, and which relates to the Zamíndári of Rámnád. They have also as is usual in such cases, produced witnesses to prove to the attestation of the Vakaluts by the ariginal parties; and the Judge has accordingly authenticated the same with his signature and oreturned them to the Vakíls.

2. The Vakíls ascribe the intended compromise to the following terms which the Natchyar and Sivaswámi Taver have entered into, viz., that the former is to pay the latter an allowance of 700 Rupees per mensem, besides 50,000 Rupees in cash, and she is to give him also a village which would yield an income of a thousand Rupees; and further, she is to with draw a Suit brought against him for certain arrears of kist due.
