Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
20th December 1860.

No. 348. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 1st December 1860, No. 5,636:—

Read the following letter from G. S. FORBES, Esq., Collector of Ganjam, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Fort Saint George, dated Chattarpúr, 22nd November 1860, No. 307.

SIR,

1. I have the honor to report for the information of the Board of Revenue and of Government, that Haddunúri Srínivása Ráu, Tahsíldár of Pubbakonda, died on the 31st ultimo, leaving a Will which the Government are prayed to administer. A translation of this document is herewith forwarded.

2. The Will provides, that of the real and personal property of the deceased, valued by him at 20,000 Rupees, a sum of 16,000 Rupees should be realized by sale of jewels and houses, by the collection of outstanding dues and appropriation of ready money. Of this sum, one moiety, 8,000 Rupees, to be devoted to maintain a Choultry at Cunchelly, and the other moiety to be invested in Government Securities for the joint benefit of the surviving widow of deceased and the mother of his former wife.

3. A sum of Rupees 1,200 is set apart for legacies and the funeral ceremonies of the deceased, and the remainder, consisting of a house at Pubbakonda, silver utensils and jewels now in possession of the widow and mother-in-law, are left to them.

4. The Will further provides, that after the decease of the widow and mother-in-law, their shares shall be appropriated to maintain another Choultry.

5. The above are the principal points in the Will. It contains nothing contrary to Hindoo Law, and may under the Regulations be administered as the Will of a Hindoo, without reference to the Courts of Law. I have caused it to be proved in open Court, and have taken custody on behalf of Government of property to the amount of 12,000 Rupees. The widow and mother-in-law of deceased occupy his house, and retain possession of their jewels and household utensils, &c.

6. I beg to be favored as soon as possible with the authority of Government to realize property of all kinds as directed in the Will, and invest that portion designed for the support of the persons interested in the Will without delay.

7. I propose to call in all outstanding sums due to the deceased.

Ordered to be submitted to Government for such orders as they may think fit to pass.

(Signed) W. HUDLESTON, Acting Secretary.

No. 349. ORDER THEREON, 20th December 1860, No. 2,460.

1. The Board of Revenue submit for orders, a letter from the Collector of Ganjam reporting that the late H. Srínivása Ráu, Tahsíldár of Pubbakonda, left a Will which the Government are prayed to administer.

2. The Honorable the Governor in Council is not disposed to accede to this request. Inconvenience and embarrassment must arise if Government should administer on occasions like the present; nor is it proper that the time of their servants should be occupied in such a manner. The Board will instruct the Collector to refrain from taking any steps in the matter, and to leave it to the widow of the deceased, who seems the lawful heir; but Mr. Forbes may, if he deems it necessary, aid the widow with his advice as to the choice of a trustworthy person to help her, in carrying out the wishes of her husband.

Acting Secretary to Government.
