who has sufficient work in his own office to engage his attention, and who cannot well leave his Division at this season of the year, especially, when so many Moplahs are idle, and consequently congregate together ready to engage in any mischief, if the strong arm of the law is, to their ideas, in any way relaxed..

3. The want of a resident European Magistrate in North Malabar, is a serious evil, and a source of considerable anxiety. Many of the Moplah inhabitants who live in the vicinity of the Western Ghats, are a turbulent set, far removed from observation, and require the presence of a European; otherwise, serious crimes are apt to happen without being brought to light and followed up, on the principle that it is better to leave things alone so long as they do not come to the surface, than to incur the enmity of a fanatical people, and the trouble consequent on tracing up criminals.

The Collector supports the application for leave on the condition of the appointment of a Head Assistant. It is quite out of the power of the Government to do that at present; and the leave must accordingly be refused.
