No. 47. ORDER THEREON, 5th March 1860, No. 348.

With their Proceedings of 20th December 1859 No. 5312 the Board forwarded a letter* from the Collector of North Arcot requesting permission to make over to the Superintendent of Police seven public bungalows, which, he alleged, were rarely occupied by bonâ-fide travellers.

* 3rd December 1859, No. 285.

2. In their order marginally indicated Government granted the required permission for the transfer of all but two, viz. those at Tirvattúr and Wandivásh, in respect to which, they required information as to the number of travellers who had made use of them during the past two years.

13th January 1860, No. 66.

3. The Board have now furnished this information. It appears that during 1858 and 1859 only nine persons made use of the bungalow at Tirvattúr, and seven that at Wandivásh. Under these circumstances, the Government authorize the transfer of these two bungalows to the Inspector General of Mofassil Police.
