No. 48. Read the following letter from J. BIRD, Esq., Magistrate of Trichinopoly; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, dated 20th February 1860, No. 37.

Paragraph. 1. I do myself the honor to acknowledge the receipt of Proceedings of the Madras Government, No. 246, of date the 16th instant, on the subject of a recent attack made by robbers on Mr. Newill in the South Arcot district while travelling to Trichinopoly.

2. Mr. Newill furnished me at the time with copy of his letter to the Magistrate of South Arcot, giving detailed particulars of the attempted robbery on him, and my Amín of Police of Válikondápuram likewise reported to me the occurrence of the fact. I ordered that officer as well as the head of police to proceed to the frontier, and to use their best endeavours to discover the perpetrators. But I regret to say they have not been able to obtain any reliable trace. Although some eleven persons were apprehended on suspicion, and forwarded to the Amín of Tittágudi.

3. I am still keeping my police officers' attention to this robbery, yet am not sanguine of success, for the reason that no property was carried off, and none of the party recognized by Mr. Newill or his servant or the carriage driver.

No. 49. ORDER THEREON, 5th March 1860, No. 349.

The Government regret to learn that the exertions of the police, to detect the persons who were concerned in the highway robbery attempted upon Mr. Newill in South Arcot, on the night of the 7th January last, while that gentleman was en route to Trichinopoly, have been unsuccessful.
