No. 19. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 24th February 1860, No. 982.

Read the following letter from T. CLARKE, Esq., Collector of Madura, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Fort Saint Georeg, dated 14th February 1860, No. 21.

With reference to the Circular from you of the 17th January last, communicating the ruling of the Secretary to the Government of India, dated 17th December 1859, No. 2499, that a Collector's Head Clerk or any other merely ministerial officer has no authority to frank covers, I have to bring to your notice that my Deputy Collectors are located one at Ramnad and the other at Sholavandan, and that my Assistant is just now at Diddikal in charge of some of the táluqs of the sub-division.

2. I have not yet been supplied with a Treasury Deputy, and, in consequence, have to perform much petty detail work: if, in addition to this, I have to sign all the covers that pass out of my office daily, much of my time, which might be devoted to more important matter, will be frittered away in mere name signing. I trust, therefore, I may be supplied with a subordinate able to relieve me of such manual labor.

Resolved that the above letter be submitted for the consideration of Government.

2. The inconvenience experienced by the Collector will be best removed by the appointment of a Deputy Collector to the charge of the Treasury, as such an officer would relieve him of other details besides the franking of letetrs.

(A true Copy and Extract.)

(Signed) J. D. SIM, Secretary.
