No. 43. Read the following Remarks of the Board of Revenue, dated 8th February 1860, No. 690, on the following tabular report for a lapsed service Yaumia.

No. 6256, from the Officiating Collector of Nellore, dated 13th December 1859.

(In Con. 16th December 1859.)

Some doubt appears to exist in regard to the precise nature of the terms under which this Yaumia was originally granted, but the Board observe, that it has been in the enjoyment of the present family from the year 1795, a period of 65 years. It has also been already renewed on two former occasions, upon the grounds of its being a service grant. The service is also now reported to be still kept up, although the Yaumia is entered in a list in the Collector's Office, as a grant "for life." Under these cirumstances, the Board recommend that the Yaumia be continued in the name of the eldest son of the last incumbent, with the payment of arrears, from the date of the decease of the latter, with an understanding, with reference* to the Orders of Government regarding grants of this description, that it will cease upon the death of the present recipient, unless the Government are of opinion that a more liberal policy is called for.

No. 44. ORDER THEREON, 15th March 1860, No. 388.

Under the circumstances the Government are pleased to direct that the Yaumia in question be continued from 10th June 1859 to Mahommed Serajaddín alias Mahomed Ghouse; it will cease upon his death as recommended by the Board.

3 of 1859.	Nellore. Nellore. A service yeomiah of 30 Rupees per mensem, or 360 Rupees per annum.	Granted on the 19th Rajib of 1209, Hijri (A. D. 10th February 1795,) under a sunnud of the Nabob Wallajah to Mahomed Mokeem and continued to him on the assumption of the country. The sunnud is not now, however, forthcoming. It is said to have been sent to the Board. The yeomiah is entered with others in a list across which is the signature of J. Vaughan, Assistant Collector, and it is also entered "for life" in a list of yeomiadars, bearing date 28th August 1804, of which the rough copy is now in the records. How far the entry of "for life" in the rough copy of the list of 1804, is correct, there are no means of ascertaining in the absence of the original sunnud or any copy thereof.	Service to perform religious ceremonies.	Careemooddeen. He died on the 10th J[une] 1859, and [was] the gre[at] grand-son [of] the grantee.	deceased enjoyed the yeomiah [of] Rupees 30 out [of] which he used [to] pay Rs. 2-8-0 [to] Bejunneesha [alias] Beebeesa, his [great] aunt.	1. Mausumbeebee, widow, aged 26 years. 2. Mahomed Serajaddeen alias Mahomed Gows, elder son, aged 7 years. 3. Goolam Dustagher, aged 1½ years, 2nd son. 4. Bejunnesha alias Beebeesa, father's sister. They possess no other ostensible means of subsistence.	On the death of the original grantee this yeomiah was renewed on the 3rd January 1823, in the name of his daughter's son, Mahomed Gows, on whose death it was continued by Government in the name of his son Careemooddeen the last holder, under date the 26th August 1848. He has left two sons, both minors. The service is kept up by Naib Mahomed Beig on behalf of the elder son, named Mahomed Serajadeen, alias Mahomed Gows and in the name of the said Serajadeen Alias Mahomed Gows, with reference to the views of Government laid down in their Proceedings under date the 9th October 1859, No. 1069, it is recommended that the yeomiah may be continued from 10th June 1859, the date of lapse. He has agreed to pay 2½ Rupees to his great Aunt Bejunnesha as usual; and there are no disputes about the succession to the yeomiah.
