In their Proceedings of the 21st October 1858, the Board reviewed and submitted to Government the reports of 11 Collectors on the defensibility of their Huzzúr and Táluq Kachahris and promised to do the same with the reports of the other Collectors when received.

No. 3974.
Paragraph 15.

One of these reports is still due, but the Board think it of little use now to pursue the subject until the re-organization of the táluqs, entrusted to Mr. Pelly has been completed and carried out. The absorption of the smaller táluqs will considerably reduce the number if detached treasuries, and the most practical plan now will be to direct the District Engineers, as soon as the Kasba stations in each district are finally determined, to submit plans and estimates for making the buildings sufficiently secure. The Board have already in paragraphs 16 and 17 of their Proceedings above quoted, suggested the mode and degree of fortification which they consider will be sufficient, especially when the police is re-organized and improved.
