Official Business

Referring to para 13 of the Proceedings of the Indian Commissioner of 15th Novr. 1860 forwarded to Govt with his letter of the same date. 18429, the Native Society to Government has the honor to request that Officer to inform him whether the date of Mr.
Purdie's report therein quoted viz 19th June 1848 is correct as such a document is not forthcoming among the records of Govt. If the date is correct, he requests that the copy in Mr. Taylor's office may be forwarded for the use of Govt as early as possible.

For Mr. George

S. J. to Govt.

The Indian Commissioner

Cham Commission Office
(Calcutta, 22^d Decr 1860.)

Official Memorandum.

In reply to the official Memorandum from the Secy Secretary & Government Revenue Department of the 20th Instant, the Cham Commissioner has the honor to state that the reference made in his Proceedings to Mr Bayley's report dated 14th June 1843 was based upon an extract of that report submitted by the Deputy Collector in his Memorandum on the Revenue of Karnool. It is possible that the date of the report was misquoted by the Deputy Collector, but as the subject referred to by Mr Bayley does not affect the general principles laid down for the settlement of the Karnool Revenues, it is not deemed necessary to call for the original report from the Collector's records.
