With reference to your Official Memorandum, dated the 12th instant, I have the honor to state that no temporary Establishments had been entertained for the preparation of the Settlement Accounts during Faslis 1266 and 67; and that, therefore, no expenditure was incurred on this account.

IN CON. 27TH FEBRUARY 1860, No. 901.

From W. M. CADELL, Esq., Collector of TANJORE, dated Vallum, 24th February 1860, No. 44.

With reference to the Proceedings of the Board, dated the 12th ultimo, No. 169, calling on me to report what saving has been effected in the jamabandi, saderward and temporary establishment, I have the honor to inform you that it has been for many years past usual in this office to obtain the sanction of Government for an annual expenditure of Rupees 1,120 on account of the extra establishment entertained for the preparation of the jamabandi accounts and to include the charges on the paper, &c., required for writing those accounts, with those of the fixed revenue saderward.

2. This practice continued up to Fusly 1265, in which besides the amount allowed for establishment a sum of Rupees 187-11-3 was expended for saderward, amounting in the aggregate to Rupees 1,307-11-3. In Fusly 1266 the system of requiring all accounts to be written on paper was introduced, but the accounts of that year not having been fully written on paper, the disbursement on account of saderward amounted only to Rupees 874.

3. In Fusly 1267, however, and when the whole accounts came to be written on paper, the total saderward charges amounted to Rupees 1,319, for which I hope the Board will obtain the sanction of Government under the circumstances above explained.
