No. 117. Read the following letter from C. BASHIAM Náyudu, Head Clerk, Assistant Collector's Office, Utakamand, to Colonel R. CREWE, Military Secretary to the Right Honorable the Governor, dated Utakamand, 15th March 1860:—

1. With due submission and respect I beg leave to annex for your information a paragraph of a letter addressed by Colonel G. P. Cameron, C.B., K.C.T. AND S., &c., late Commandant and Joint Magistrate of the Hills, to T. Pycroft, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, dated 1st May 1856, which letter is now in that gentleman's Office at Madras.

"That these duties since the transfer of the Sadr Amín's Court have hitherto been "successfully discharged has been chiefly owing to the ready and extensive knowledge, zeal "and unwearied and untiring application of the Head Writer or Manager of this Office, Báshiam "Náyudu—a situation he has held with credit to himself and honor to his superiors for the long "period of upwards of 20 years."

2. I am very sorry to bring to your kind notice that the Orders of Government have been received wherein the pay of the Head Clerk, in which I am appointed, is reduced from Rupees 52-8-0 to Rupees 45 per mensem, and others also, whereby I sustain a loss of 7½ Rupees per month. This order, I humbly beg to observe, ought reasonably to be applicable to my successor, and not to myself.

3. It cannot be the intention of Government that a public servant who has discharged his duty to the entire satisfaction of his several superiors, who were changed once in every two years, should serve on a reduced salary. I beg to mention, for example, that when the Court of Sadr Amín at Salem was abolished, the Head of which Court was in the receipt of a salary of Rupees 200, was permitted to receive the same amount with only the alteration of the title of his rank, but invested with that of a 1st class District Munsif of that station; and my circumstance is situated exactly as his.

4. I further beg to bring to your notice that when the Principal Sadr Amín's Court was established here in 1856, the pay of the Sarrishtadár sanctioned by Government was only 50 Rupees. The Principal Sadr Amín tried his best to obtain the services of a competent person for the post, but could not succeed, after repeated insertion of Advertisement in the Official Gazette; he at once telegraphed to the Chief Secretary to Government to increase the salary to 100 Rupees, which was sanctioned, and then the post was filled up.

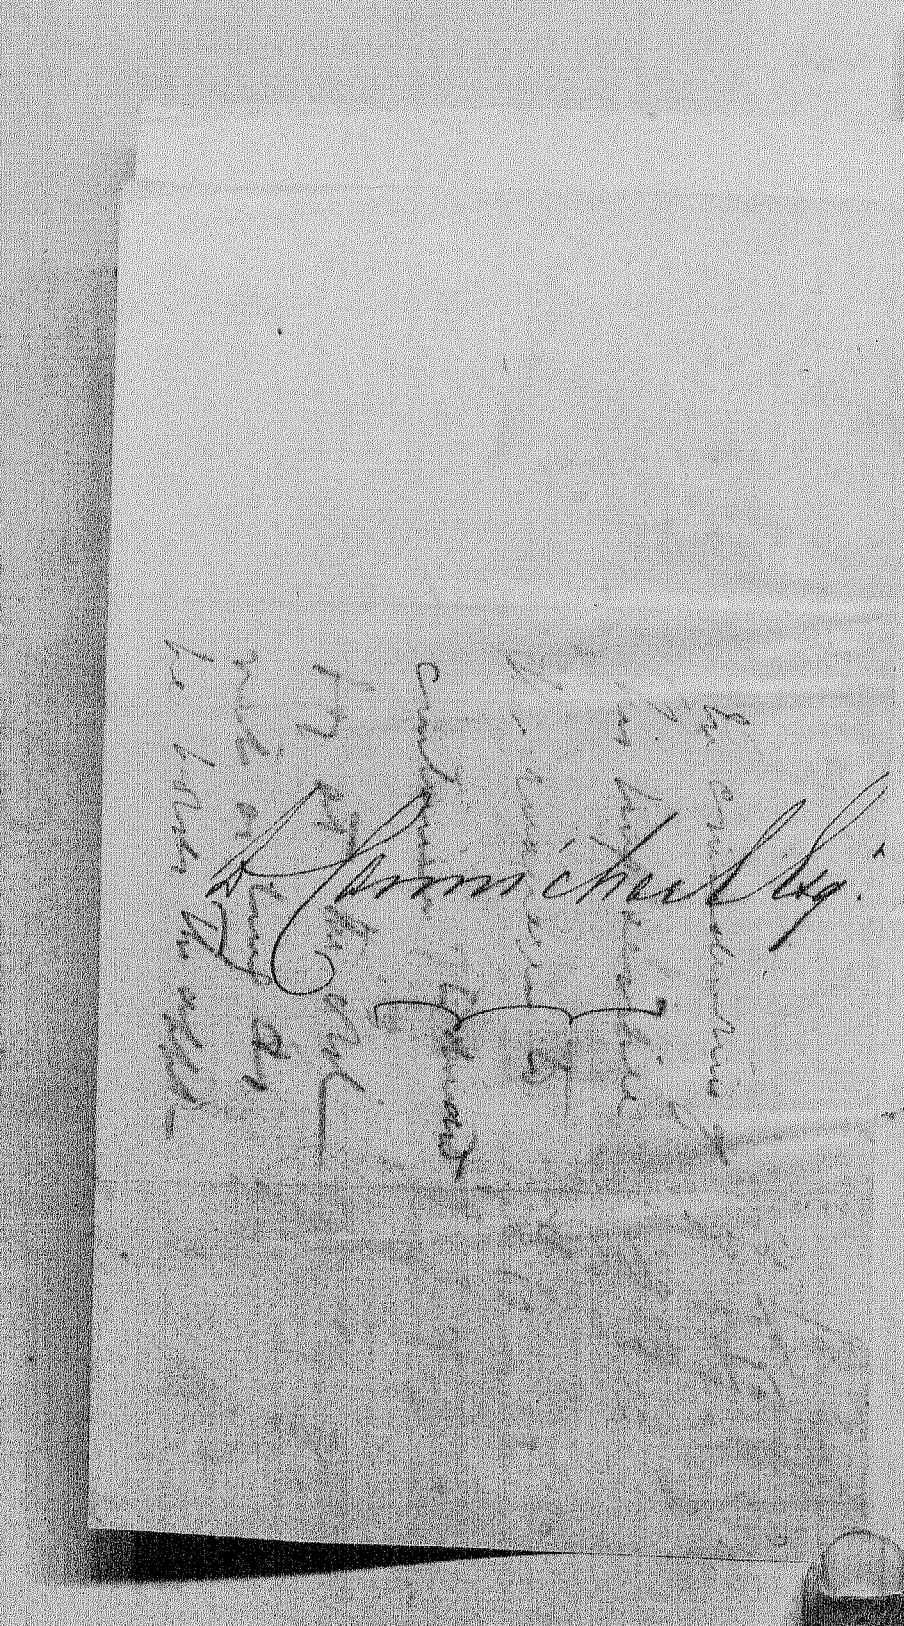

5. I therefore humbly request your honor—the only favor I would seek from your hands in the absence of your father, who had entertained me first in the Government service—you will be kind enough to intercede in my behalf with Government, to allow me to draw my present pay of Rupees 52-8-0 per mensem, till such time as I may remain in the service.

No. 118. ORDER THEREON, 27th April 1860, No. 661.

In consideration of the long service of C. Báshiam Náyudu as Manager in the Office of the Assistant Collector and Magistrate on the Nílgiri Hills, the Government will permit him to draw pay at the old rate, viz. Rupees 52-8-0 per mensem, as long as he holds that appointment.
