From W. KNOX, Esq., Collector of KRISHNA DISTRICT, dated Masulipatam, 28th March 1860, No. 64.

I have the honor to report. for the information of the Board of Revenue, the death, on the 5th January 1860, of Rajah Hussain, a stipendiary connected with the family of the late Nawab of Masulipatam, who was in the receipt of a monthly pension of Rupees 24-8-0, and whose place in the list of money allowances of the late Masulipatam district, transmitted to the Board on the 18th September 1858, was No. 21, under the head of personal grants not strictly hereditary.

2. The deceased was one of the sons of Najamut Dowlah, 5th son of Hussun Alli Khan, styled the Nawab of Masulipatam when the whole amount of pension Rs. 419-6-0, enjoyed by the said Najamut Dowlah, which after his death, was renewed in the name of his eldest son Jalalul Dowlah as per sanction of the Government of India, dated 22nd December 1842, communicated with the Board's Proceedings of the 30th January 1843, was sub-divided among the several members of the family, in consequence of great remissness on the part of the said Jalalul Dowlah in the regular distribution of money to co-sharers, as detailed in the correspondence noted marginally a monthly pension of Rs. 24-8-0 was fixed to the deceased Rajah Hussain.

To Board, 30th May 1844.

From Board to Collector, 1st September 1845.
From Collector to Board, 25th September 1845.
From Government to Board, 27th October 1845, No. 1,252.

3. The deceased left a daughter named Jabeda Begum, aged six years, and an old mother-in-law as detailed in column 10 of the accompanying tabular statement. The former having no mother, is left to the care of the latter; and it appears, they have no other means of livelihood than the pension.

4. Looking at the helpless condition in which the child is left, I recommend that a monthly pension of Rs. 16, being two-thirds of the deceased's allowance Rs. 24-8-0, may be renewed in the name of Jabeda Begum for the support of herself and her grand-mother.

5. In conclusion, I also beg to recommend that Jabeda Begum being a minor, the pension which may be renewed in her name from the date of the demise of her father, may be paid into the hands of her grand-mother Patma Begum Sahaba, until such time as the girl may come of age, and afterwards to herself.
