Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, for the month of May 1860.

No. 89. Read the following letter from Colonel J. H. BELL, Chief Engineer, to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Chepauk, 28th April 1860, No. 12,812 :—

I have the honor to submit for the consideration of Government, the accompanying letter from the District Engineer of Salem,* reporting that in accordance with the instructions from this Office he entered in his Contingent Bill for October 1859, an item of Rupees (2-11-0,) Two and Annas eleven, being the expense incurred in petty repairs to the furniture of certain Travellers' Bungalows, which the Civil Auditor declined to admit.

* No. 934, 3rd February 1860.

2. In order, therefore, that some definite rule may exist for the guidance of the Officers of the Department, I have to request the favor of early instructions as to the manner in which such outlays are hereafter to be charged.

No. 90. ORDER THEREON, 17th May 1860, No. 794.

Travellers' Bungalows are under the management of the Collector, and small charges of the description under notice may be paid by that Officer without the special sanction of Government. The District Engineer should apply to the Collector for re-payment of the sum now in question.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.
