Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Deprtment, 9th June 1860.

No. 107. Read the following letter from E. F. HARRISON, Esq., Civil Auditor, to J. D. BOURDILLION, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Madras, 1st June 1860, No. 148 :—

In acknowledging the receipt of the Orders of Government, dated 30th ultimo, No. 62, Revenue Department, referring me to the Order of Government of the 28th December 1858, No. 1,996,* Revenue Department, granting Mr. E. C. G. Thomas one month's privilege leave without prejudice to the remainder (two months) of the accumulated leave to which he was eligible, and requesting me with reference thereto to report again on Mr. Thomas' present application, I have the honor to state, that under the Rules cumulative leave is not grantable by instalments. The privilege leave, therefore, obtained by Mr. Thomas in March last, was considered as granted with reference to the eleven months service completed by him since his return from the one month's leave obtained in January 1859.

* C No. of 1858.

I am of opinion that the extension now sought for cannot be granted under the Absentee Rules.

No. 108. ORDER THEREON, 9th June 1860, No. 957.

1. Mr. Thomas was entitled to three months accumulated leave in December 1858. He was allowed only one month because he could not be spared from Malabar ; but the Government specially ordered that this should be without prejudice to the remainder of his accumulated leave.

December 28th 1858.

2. In March last Mr. Thomas had thus again three months accumulated leave due ; but he only asked for one month, because he was unwilling to hinder the work of the Department under his charge. During his leave he got fever at Cochin and needed an extension of eight days to enable him to get back to Tellicherry. The Civil Auditor first reported that he was not entitled to any more leave, as he had a month's leave in January and February 1859 ; and on the Order of December 28th 1858, being pointed out to him, he now states that privilege leave cannot be taken by instalments.

3. This is true according to the rule. But in the opinion of Government the present is a fair case for making an exception ; because it was regard for the public service which led Mr. Thomas to ask for one month instead of three ; and because it is only sickness which now makes him ask for an extension.

4. The Government resolve accordingly to grant the further leave applied for by Mr. Thomas, under Section 12.

Secretary to Government.
