1	Ramachendrapuram Taluq. In lieu of resumed Inams at Ramachendrapuram and Muchumilli, valued at Rupees 22-7-0 per annum.	Formerly granted by Nawab Ausuff Jan to Sultan Mohamed during the Mogul Government. A Maharzarnama as remarked in the list of Yeomiahs submitted to Government through the Board for Fasli 1269 under date the 8th December last. This allowance is a moiety of the two items Nos. 1 and 2 in the Statement No. 1, forwarded to the Board on the 18th February 1848.	Service. Keeping lights in the Panja at Draksharama.	Khadim Husain died 8th October 1860, son of the great grand-son to the original grantee.	Entire.	1. Alli Saib, younger brother, aged 16 years. 2. Pachabibi mother do. 50 do. The first named, as heir to the deceased, succeeded to the annuity of 8 Rupees paid by the Zemindar of Vegayamapeta.	This allowance, originally fixed by the former Zemindar of the taluq in lieu of the resumed Inam lands, was enjoyed by the deceased as per sanction of Government dated the 23rd February 1860. This is a part of the grants of 93 Rupees alluded to in paragraph 2 of Extract Minutes of Consultation dated 20th June 1848 as "to be exempted from all interference, provided the service continued to be performed." The Collector begs to recommend that this grant may be sanctioned to be continued to Alli Saib, the deceased's brother, who is now performing the prescribed duties in the institution.
