To,

G. S. Forbes Esquire
Collector of Ganjam

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith copy of a letter from Colonel Gordon Commanding the 31st Regiment and to request your instructions relative to the Cutcherry and Public Bungalow.

It would no doubt be more profitable to Government to build both a Cutcherry and public bungalow than to continue paying rent for the houses now occupied.

If you decide to give up the two buildings to the Officers I might perhaps be able to make arrangements for the treasure to remain where it now is for the present but no time should be lost in commencing the building for the Sahibdar's Cutcherry.
