From the original Yaumidár Jaffer Beg having, while Cutwall of Tripatur, obtained from the merchants of that place, and at their free will, a grant of 1 Dooggaree upon every loaded bullock coming under Sayer duty, on behalf of his son Abdulla Beg.	From 1st April 1858 to 30th September 1860.....	R. A. P. 26 11 2	These three Yaumiadárs failed to certify their existence in Faslí 1268 by other Yaumiadárs, in accordance with the rules in force. The Tahsíldár was therefore directed by Mr. Fane, the late Officiating Collector, to stop the disbursement of the Yaumiá due to them. They subsequently urged that in consequence of some private affairs they were unable to certify their life in the manner required by the rules at the appointed time. They have since certified their existence and identity by two male Musjeeddars, and a female named Futmabee. I therefore request the sanction of the Board for the disbursement of the arrears of Yaumiá and for the periodical payment of the same in future.

I think it is hardly worth while calling for this information - it is evident the Govt. is desirous - the Gromials should be continued - & it may be left to the Collr. to see that the Gromiadars are properly selected
