The payment of this woman's Yaumia allowance was stopped in common with those of several other Gosha female Yaumiadárs agreeably to the orders of Government conveyed in the Board's Proceedings, dated 3rd February 1851 on the ground that they had failed to appear for muster. 2. A subsequent Circular, dated 13th May 1856, No. 1,454, called for a list of the female Yaumiadárs to whom the privilege of exemption should be accorded, and directed that the c ses of those Gosha women, whose allowances remained undrawn in consequence of their failure to appear in person for identification, should be noted down. Inquiries were accordingly set on foot with a view of ascertaining the rank and respectability of the parties concerned. Such cases as had been got ready up to the end of May 1857 were embodied in three Statements, and submitted to the Board with my predecessor's letter of the 16th June 1857, and sanction to disburse the arrears due to the females named therein, was accorded in Extract Minutes of Consultation, dated 30th September 1859. The inquiry into the remaining cases has since been completed; and one of them is the case of the female of whom there is now question. The late Yaumiadár has all along been petitioning Government, the Board, and the Collector for the continuance of her allowance which is a life grant, and having latterly come to Chittoor, died there on the 23rd February 1860, leaving an only daughter named Rosham Bi who now claims as heir the disbursement of the arrears due to her late mother. 3. The identity of the late Yaumiadár, the fact that she was alive up to the 23rd February 1860, and that the present claimant is her only daughter, are points which have since been indisputably established both by the Tahsildár of the Chittoor Táluq, and the Kazi at Arcot. 4. The party in question is not one of those compromised in the recent fraud case. 5. Under these circumstances, the Acting Collector begs to recommend that the arrears due to the deceased Yaumiadár, amounting to Rupees 873-3-4, be paid to Roshan Bi, her daughter and heir.

Submitted for the sanction of Government.
