Mr. W. C. Illiers

1st Class Deputy

Collector.

May 15th 1864.

Mr. Illiers, a very delicate looking man, presented himself a few days ago. From his own account he has benefitted but little since he left Kinnab, he is still much distressed by the Ocular Spectra. He complains also that he is ~~as~~ as blind at nights as he was before.

I examined the Eyes with the Ophthalmoscope, but could discover nothing more than one or two slight congested patches, but sufficient to account for the symptoms. Much of his ocular ailments depend upon the general state
