SIR,

1. I have the honor to request you will obtain the permission of Government for Major Babington, the Assistant Conservator at Ootacamund, to sue Mr. James McIvor in the Civil Court at that station, for damages done to a Government wood, Mr. James McIvor having felled and sold wood contrary to the terms of his lease, and in the face of the prohibition of the Collector and the Assistant Conservator.

2. The case having been referred to the Magistrate of Ootacamund he declined to interfere, and recommended an action in the Civil Court; the Civil power having refused to issue a warrant for the seizure of the wood, the only course open to the Assistant Conservator is a Civil Suit.

No. 28. ORDER THEREON, 3rd August 1861, No. 1,541.
