Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 15th October 1861.

No. 200. Read the following Remarks of the Board of Revenue, dated 8th August 1861, No. 4,278, on the following Tabular Report of lapsed Poligar Pensions :—

From the Collector of Cuddapah, dated 16th July 1861.

(In Cons. 19th July 1861, No. 4,483.)

No. 1.—As there is no male issue in this case, the Board concur in the Collector's recommendation for the continuance of 60 Rupees per mensem out of the allowance enjoyed by the late Poligar to his widow and daughter-in-law jointly, and to be continued during the life of the last survivor, and with arrears from the date of decease of the late incumbent.

No. 2.—The Board recommend that an allowance of Rupees 25 per mensem be continued in the joint names of the two widows of the last incumbent with arrears from the date of his demise, the whole allowance to be enjoyed by the last survivor of the two widows during her life.

No. 3.—The eldest son, being the legal heir, the Board support the recommendation of the Collector for the continuance of the allowance of the late incumbent in his son's name from the date of his demise.

No. 4.—The Board see no reason to doubt the genuineness of the relationship of Rama Reddy to the late incumbent, his alleged father; and accordingly recommend that the pension enjoyed by the latter be continued in the name of the former from the date of its lapse.

There has been excessive delay in reporting these cases for orders. The Board trust that the notice which the Collector has taken of it, will prevent its repetition.

By Order,

(Signed) W. HUDLESTON, Secretary.

2. The delay in the Collector's Office has been excessive.

He died on the 24th February 1860, leaving a widow named Mangamah, and a widowed daughter-in-law Vencatamah, who are the only surviving legal heirs of the deceased, and whom the Collector begs to recommend for succession to half of the allowance from the date of the demise of the last incumbent, or for simplicity of audit, say Rupees 60 per mensem or Rupees 720 per annum. 2	Gattu in the Madnapalli taluq. Rs. 322-9-4 per annum out of Rupees 5,833-5-4 entered in No. 15 of Mr. Ross' Register, Statement X.	Granted by Colonel Munro, and sanctioned by Government on the 10th September 1813, to Raghunayakulu Naidu, the original grantee. No sunnuds or other documents are forthcoming.	Poligar pension granted in lieu of resumed lands, privileges, &c.	The last holder Narasimha Naidu died on the 4th October 1857. He was the grand-son of the original grantee.	The whole of the share of pension, Rupees 322-9-4, was enjoyed by the deceased.	First widow Mangamah Naikuralu, aged 39 years, A. Second widow Nagamah Naikuralu, aged 34 years, B. No issue, and the two widows are represented to be in poor circumstances. They possess no other means of livelihood.	The deceased succeeded to the Grant under the orders of Government, dated 3rd April 1846, and has left no other heirs than the two widows named in column 6. They are reported to possess no other means of support than the pension enjoyed by their late husband. It is therefore recommended that the Grant may be renewed in the names of the widows, from the date of the death of the last incumbent, half to be resumed at the death of either pensioner, and for simplicity of audit, the pension to be rated at Rupees 25 per mensem, or Rupees 300 per annum. The great delay which has occurred in reporting the present lapse, arises from the report from the taluq having been mislaid. It should have been reported by Mr. Murray in 1857. It seems to have also escaped the notice of my predecessor, Mr. Fraser, in 1859-60.

Besides the pension enjoyed by the deceased, the family is in possession of Saguvali Inam land to the amount of Rs. 10-7-8, and Puttah land Rs. 11-11-1, which are insufficient for their support.	29 3 0 14 9 0 14 9 0 58 5 0	The deceased Kristnama Naidu, the last incumbent, succeeded to the Grant under the orders of Government dated 3rd April 1846, which he enjoyed up to his death. He has left a widow and two sons, of whom the eldest, Papi Naidu is 16 years old, and the youngest, Kadripati Naidu, is only 6, with a number of relatives depending for support on the pension. The Collector therefore begs to recommend that the eldest son Papi Naidu may succeed to the pension, from the date of his father's demise, or from 1st May 1859, from which date the pension was undrawn by the deceased incumbent. This report appears to have been mislaid, when the change of official arrangements took place in 1859. The neglect of the head Clerk has necessitated his removal from his present office.

Besides the pension, the family possess Puttah land to a trifling amount quite insufficient for their living.	The last holder, Venkatakristna Reddy, who succeeded to the Grant under the orders of Government, dated 10th May 1849, No. 463, died on the 15th December 1858. His son aged 2 years was reported to have been born, and to reside in the Hydrabad district. Proof of this report was solicited by the late Collector from the Resident of Hydrabad on the 24th March 1859. His reply of 5th September 1860, attested the truth of the above report. It appears to have been customary for females in their first pregnancy to proceed to their mother's house for delivery, which was the cause of the child having been born at Taudur in Nagarakandanuru taluq of the Nizam's territory. It is therefore recommended that the share of the pension, viz., Rs. 1,514-4-0 per annum, be continued in the name of the minor Rama Reddy, son of the last holder, from the date of his father's demise, viz., the 16th December 1858.

REMARKS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 8th August 1861, on the following Tabular Report of lapsed Poligar Pensions.

From the Collector of Cuddapah, dated 16th July 1861.

(In Cons. 19th July 1861, No. 4,483.)

No. 1.—As there is no male issue in this case, the Board concur in the Collector's recommendation for the continuance of 60 Rupees per mensem out of the allowance enjoyed by the late Poligar to his widow and daughter-in-law jointly, and to be continued during the life of the last survivor, and with arrears from the date of decease of the late incumbent.

No. 2.—The Board recommend that an allowance of Rupees 25 per mensem be continued in the joint names of the two widows of the last incumbent with arrears from the date of his demise, the whole allowance to be enjoyed by the last survivor of the two widows during her life.

No. 3.—The eldest son, being the legal heir, the Board support the recommendation of the Collector for the continuance of the allowance of the late incumbent in his son's name from the date of his demise.

No. 4.—The Board see no reason to doubt the genuineness of the relationship of Rama Reddy to the late incumbent, his alleged father; and accordingly recommend that the pension enjoyed by the latter be continued in the name of the former from the date of its lapse.

There has been excessive delay in reporting these cases for orders. The Board trust that the notice which the Collector has taken of it, will prevent its repetition.

Secretary.
