No. 83. ORDER THEREON, 7th November 1861, No. 2,127.

The Government observe several instances in which undue leniency seems to have been shown. The following are examples :—In Madras a Huzúr Shroff was simply dismissed from employment "for embezzlement and fraudulently altering the Cash Book." In Nellore one G. Atchaya was merely suspended for three months though he took advantage of his official position to favor a relative; and in Kurnool two servants who brought false charges against a Sub-Magistrate were only suspended.
