Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 24th December 1861.

No. 236. Read the following letter from W. J. RAYNOR, Esq., Officiating Civil Paymaster, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort Saint George, 11th December 1861, No. 1,254:—

SIR,

1. Before passing the allowance granted to Mr. R. E. Master in G. O. No. 2,199 of 21st November 1861, I have the honor to point out that, that allowance is not in accordance with existing Rules, which preclude an Officer temporarily officiating in an appointment superior to his own from drawing an amount larger than the entire emoluments of the office in which he is officiating, even though he perform the duties of his own in addition to those of the acting appointment.

2. As Sub-Collector officiating also as Deputy Director Mr. Master is entitled to an acting allowance of Rupees 33-5-4 only, in addition to the salary of his permanent post, so as to make up his aggregate allowances to Rupees 1,200 equal to the pay of Deputy Director, while under the order above cited he will receive 1,600 Rupees, or Rupees 400 in excess.

No. 237. ORDER THEREON, 24th December 1861, No. 2,359.

The additional allowance was granted to Mr. R. E. Master as a special case. It is economical as well as desirable that he should hold the two offices while the settlement is in progress in his District, and the arrangement is altogether exceptional.

(Signed) J. D. SIM,
Secretary to Government.
