Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 30th January 1861.

No. 479. Read the following letter from H. NEWILL, Esq., Director of Revenue Settlement, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 11th January 1861, No. 72:—

SIR,

1. In their Proceedings dated 17th October 1860, No. 1,899, paragraph 6, the Government was pleased to fix the salary of Assistant in the Settlement Department at Rupees 400 per mensem with travelling allowance at 3 Rupees per diem, but in their subsequent orders they were pleased to fix Rupees 325 and 425 respectively for the Assistant of the wo grades, and 200 Rupees for Probationers without any separate tentage or travelling allowance.

Dated 15*th December* 1860, No. 2,415, para. 2.
„ 1*st December* 1860, No. 2,289, para. 4.

2. As the Assistants are put to more than ordinary expense in joining their stations for the first time, or on transfer, as occasion may require, from one District to another, I have the honor to submit for the consideration of Government my recommendation that in the cases specified, a travelling allowance should be granted at the rate of 4 Annas a mile.

No. 480. ORDER THEREON, 30th January 1861, No. 239.

1. In this letter the Director of Revenue Settlement recommends that a mileage of 4 Annas should be allowed to the Assistant Directors on first joining the Department and on occasions of transfer.

2. The pay of an Assistant Director was originally Rupees 400 with a travelling allowance of Rupees 3 per diem. When the appointment of Assistant of the second grade was created the salary was fixed at Rupees 300 and then the salaries of both grades were declared to be consolidated and the travelling allowance of the first grade was withdrawn. Subsequently Mr. Newill pointed out that the Assistants in the Survey Department received Rupees 425 and 325 respectively, including travelling allowance and the same rates were adopted for the Settlement Assistants.

Order, 17*th October* 1860, No. 1,899.

Order, 1*st December* 1860, No. 2,289.

Order, 15*th Dec.* 1860, No. 2,415.

3. The salaries being consolidated the Government are unable to accede to the present application. Further, the rules do not allow travelling allowance to Uncovenanted Officers on first appointmet; and as to transfers, they may fairly be considered as the ordinary contingencies of the service.

Secretary to Government.

-posely bet rid of all the trouble of extra allowances - He might perhaps be allowed as first joining - but subsequent transfers may fairly be considered as the ordinary contingencies of the Service.

W

If anything is to be granted (which I do) he might as first joining only in my opinion

Ellis

This I should decidedly discountenance

Wells

I would grant neither - If the applicant was not liked on the terms they were not to be taken
