Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that Mr. Mcgregor being but Collector has forwarded an application for two months privilege leave which I request may be granted.

He has lately been very ill from the effects of fever contracted while on duty in the more remote and jungly parts of the district. His object I believe in applying for the leave is to seek the restoration of his health by having recourse to a change of air.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obd.t Servt.
