To

J. D. Sim Esq^r
Secretary to Govt.
Rev Department

Sir

I am desirous of doing away with the erroneous impression of Mr. Tomlinson's being totally without experience conveyed in the marginal note to the letter from the Director Revenue Settlement N^o 654 which forms the subject of the Proof Govt. dated 3rd May 1861 N^o 987 & have the honor to state that Mr. J. A. Tomlinson was not appointed on the 19th April last as there is no such appointment but on the 31st August 1860 after having served on probation for 13 months.

not J. A. as in the
G. O. referred to.

The Gentleman appointed on the 19th April last is employed with N^o 3 party at Junlin.

I have the honor to be
