SIR,

1. I have the honor to report for the information of Government the death of Mr. Reid in charge of Mudumallai forest and Segoor ghât on the 22nd December 1860.

2. I have directed Captain Gib my Assistant to take charge of the Accounts and Cash chest as a temporary measure.

3. As Captain Gib has been over Mudumallai forest in my company and has seen the system of working pursued, I would recommend to Government that Captain Gib remain in charge of Mudumallai and Segoor forests and Segoor ghât.

4. To prevent illegal cutting on the Mysore and Wainád boundaries, it will be very necessary to appoint an Officer in Captain Gibs' place as early as possible, if Captain Gib remains in charge of Mudumallai forest.
