Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 9th February 1861.

No. 126. Read the following letter from CLEMENT DALE, Esq., Government Pleader Sudder Adálat, to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 5th February 1861, No. 23:—

SIR,

1. With reference to the Order of Government noted in the margin, I have the honor to report for the information of the Honorable the Governor in Council, that I have prepared the necessary petitions for appealing to Her Majesty in Council against the Decree passed by the Court of Sudder Adálat in Appeal Suit No. 140 of 1859, it is however required that previously to the same being admitted, I should deposit Rupees 4,000 with the Registrar of the Court as security for the payment of costs, as directed by the Circular Order of the Sudder Adálat of 31st December 1853, No. 131 A; there being no difference in that respect (as I am informed) between a case appealed by Government, from that of an appeal by an ordinary suitor.

25th January 1861, No. 181, Revenue Department.

2. I have therefore the honor to solicit that the necessary orders may be issued for placing in my hands a Government Promissory Note of the 4 per cent. loan for Rupees 4,000 (four thousand), specially endorsed to "the Registrar of the Court of Sudder Adálat at Madras for the time being or his order."

3. Formerly a sum of Rupees 400 was required to be deposited with the Registrar of the Sudder Adálat, as a deposit for covering the expense of preparing a translation and transcript of the record; the Registrar now informs me such is not required in Government cases as he is authorized to send in a contingent bill for any expenses which may be incurred in those respects.

No. 127. ORDER THEREON, 9th February 1861, No. 321.

Resolved accordingly that the Sub-Treasurer be authorized to purchase, on behalf of the Government, a four per cent. Promissory Note for Rupees (4,000, four thousand, and forward it to the Government Pleader specially endorsed to the Registrar to the Court of Sudder Adálat for the time being or to his order.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.
