Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 14th February 1861.

No. 190. Read the following letter from Major H. J. BROCKMAN, Canarese Translator to Government, to C. G. MASTER, Esq., Deputy Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Bangalore, 6th February 1861:—

SIR,

As I am informed that the printed translation of the revised forms of the Income Tax received with letter from the Judicial Department, dated 24th October last, No. 111, are of little use in consequence of subsequent alterations, I request instructions as to whether I should print the translation of the forms forwarded with your Memorandum of the 5th September last, Revenue Department, No. 358.

No. 191. ORDER THEREON, 14th February 1861, No. 354.

So much time having already elapsed, and the Government having been given to understand that the amended forms alluded to by Major Brockman are all that are required by the Collectors who have, moreover, already printed for themselves those requisite for the current year, it will be unnecessary, with the prospect of further revision, for any further action to be taken on the Memorandum of 5th September last.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.

From C. Major H. S. Brockman
