Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 5th March 1861.

No. 60. Read the following letter from W. WATERFIELD, Esq., Officiating Civil Auditor, to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort Saint George, 14th February 1861, No. 124:—

SIR,

1. I have the honor to report as follows on the claim of Mr. Rundall, Assistant Director Revenue Settlement, to travelling allowance at 3 Rupees per diem referred to this Office by Proceedings of Government, dated 9th February 1861, No. 322.

2. In the Order of Government No. 2,034, dated 2nd November 1860, Mr. Rundall's salary was fixed for the present at Rupees 300 per mensem, with travelling allowance at 3 Rupees per diem.

3. In their subsequent Order of 1st December 1860, No. 2,289, Government fixed the salaries of Assistants at Rupees 300 and 400, for first and second grades, and ruled that travelling allowance was not to be granted to either.

4. Finally, by Order No. 2,415 of the 15th December last, the salaries of the two classes of Assistants were raised to Rupees 325 and 425 respectively, that they might not be placed at a disadvantage compared with those in the Survey branch.

5. The original Order I consider distinctly implied that Mr. Rundall's pay was not permanently fixed, and the second established a somewhat lower rate in consideration of the prospects of promotion held out, while Government have already granted an increase on this.

6. I do not think that Mr. Rundall has any further claim. However, as the new appointments are not yet all made, and he is reported to be an efficient Officer and placed in a responsible position, there is no objection to his being ranked in the first grade, but with a salary of Rupees 390 till he has acquired some further experience. This perhaps is the plan the Director of Revenue Settlement means to propose.

No. 61. ORDER THEREON, 5th March 1861, No. 501.

Order, 2nd November 1860, No. 2,034.

Mr. C. Rundall was appointed an Assistant Director of Revenue Settlement on a salary of Rupees 300 a month with travelling allowance at 3 Rupees a day, and his claim to the full allowances so fixed appears to the Government to be a fair one, although the allowances for that grade have been subsequently reduced. They accordingly authorize the Civil Auditor to pass pay and allowances to Mr. Rundall at that rate, so long as he continues to be a Second Assistant.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.

Ans^r The salary first fixed for second class assistants was 300 Rub.
with 3 Rub. a day travelling allow-ance; & Mr Rundall was ap-pointed in those terms. After-wards the pay was altered; & was fixed, first at 300 Rub. without any travelling allce, & then 325 Rub.

In such case of reduction it is no more than fair to respect the claims & vested interests of those appointed before the reduction; & if this were done in this case, Mr Rundall would be allowed to draw the allce originally fixed, viz. 390 Rub. so long as he continues [illegible] 2nd Assistant.
