Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 14th March 1861.

No. 274. Read the following letter from Messrs. ARBUTHNOT & Co., to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 21st February 1861:—

SIR,

1. We have the honor to forward herewith for submission to His Excellency the Governor in Council an application from Major E. J. Lawder, Honorary Secretary to the Lane Testimonial Fund, for exemption of that Fund from payment of Income Tax.

2. We request you will be so good as to communicate to us the Proceedings of Government thereupon.

From Major E. J. LAWDER, Honorary Secretary to the Lane Testimonial Fund, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 20th February 1861.

SIR,

1. I have the honor to request, that Government may be pleased to exempt the Lane Testimonial Fund, of which I am Honorary Secretary, from the Income Tax.

2. On the death of the late Dr. T. M. Lane in 1844, his friends raised, as a tribute to his memory, by private subscription among themselves, a Testimonial Fund, which now amounts to Rupees 13,400, and is invested in Government Securities.

3. The purpose for which the Fund was raised, was to enable Protestant Christians, Natives of the Madras Presidency, and of respectable connexions, to qualify themselves for the Medical profession, and thereby generally to benefit the country by the diffusion of medical knowledge, throughout the Presidency.

4. Government approving of the objects of the Fund ordered on its institution, that the Lane Scholars should be allowed to attend the Presidency Medical College, on the same terms as Government Students, and compete with them for appointments.

5. Two Scholarships are given by the Fund, the value of each being twenty Rupees per mensem. One Scholarship is at present vacant.

6. As it will appear from the foregoing explanation, that the Lane Testimonial Fund is purely a charitable institution, I trust Government will see fit to exempt its funds and income from the operation of the Income Tax Act.

No. 275. ORDER THEREON, 14th March 1861, No. 604.

The Government are of opinion that the spirit of the order of the Government of India, as contained in No. 38 of the "Constructions" re-published in the second Supplement to the "Fort Saint George Gazette," of 19th February last, precludes them from granting the exemption requested, inasmuch as the "Lane Testimonial Fund" is devoted to the education of other than the poor and indigent.

Deputy Secretary to Government.
