No. 340. ORDER THEREON, 19th March 1861, No. 637.

Ordered to be recorded.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.

Note on Rev. No 877.

1. In the Suit referred to in this paper (No 2 of 1859 in the Civil Court of Rajahmundry) the Proprietor of the village of Kappaleshwaram claimed an island formed by accretion in the Godaveri, near that village. Plaintiff alleged that the land was in the possession of his father in 1843 and 1844, but that in 1845 the village servants of the Tadapudi village reaped the produce thereof; that his father and himself complained of this, but that nothing was done.

2. In reporting the institution of the Suit, the Collector stated that in 1843, when the Kappaleshwaram village was in the possession of plaintiff's father, a dispute arose as to the cultivation of part of the lands sued for between its inhabitants and those of Tadapudi, which then belonged to the Ramachandrapuram Estate; that the settlement of the dispute by panchayat was intended, but was objected to; and that the Ramachandrapuram estate having meanwhile reverted to Govt, the Coll. & Pr. Pondy past visited the locality, and in Febry 1847, decided that the lands belonged to the Sathpadi villages.

In his defence, the Coll. among other objections, mentioned that the Plaintiff's claim was barred by the Statute of Limitations. The Court has admitted the validity of this objection, on the ground that the Plaintiff, by her own admission, was kept out of the land since 1845, and did not institute a Suit till 1854; and has dismissed the Suit with costs.
