My Lord,

I am extremely sorry to state to your Lordship, the circumstance of the Accountant General of the Supreme Court of this Presidency, having deducted unjustly a certain sum of money on account of the Income Tax, against the rules of the said Income Tax, out of the interest money paid by him on the Government Promissory Notes secured in the said Supreme Court Department for a certain noble, kind, and benevolent charity* under the order† of the Supreme Court, dated 27th July 1855, in the suit compromised between myself and M. Sundara Rámánjulu Náyudu, and M. Rámánjamma; I therefore beg to solicit your Lordship will be graciously pleased to authorize the said Accountant General not only to refund the amount so deducted by him from 1st August last, but also in future to exempt such tax on the said Charity Fund; and inform the same to me at your Lordship's earliest convenience, in order that I may give direction to the said Rámánjamma to apply for the same, as she is now looking after the management of the charity affair as a Manager under the power of myself and the said M. Sundara Rámánjulu Náyudu, who is at present absent from Madras.
