REVENUE DEPARTMENT.
FORT SAINT GEORGE,
18th January 1861.

No. 129.

From

J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq.,
Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George,

To

The Secretary to the Government of India, in the Financial Department.

SIR,

1. The Officer Commanding Her Majesty's 66th Regiment, at present stationed at Cannanore, having preferred a request for the exemption from Income Tax of the allowance in aid of the mess, amounting to Rupees 150 per mensem, I am directed, as it is a matter, the decision in which will affect all Her Majesty's British Regiments stationed in India, to submit the question for the orders of the Supreme Government.

2. The allowance in question is a general one, and not for the individual benefit of any Officer: and His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, in forwarding the application, has pointed out that the corresponding allowance granted to Regiments in England, and the Colonies, is always exempted from Income Tax.

3. I am to state that this Government concur in the views of His Excellency and recommend that such allowances be held exempt from Income Tax.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

J. D. Bourdillon

Secretary to Government.
