Dowlaishweram

8th December 1860

From Captain C. E. D. Hill

Commandant Sappers & Miners

To The Adjutant General of the Army

Fort St. George

Sir,

I have the honor respectfully to represent to His Excellency the Commander in Chief that Income Tax has been levied on the allowance made by Government to the Sapper Mess, as this allowance is made for a particular purpose, such as the rent of a Mess house and payment of Servants &c. I beg the favor of His Excellency putting the question as to whether the act contemplated its being taxed and I further respectfully solicit His Excellency's recommendation in favor favor of its being exempted.

I have &c

Commanding, Northern Division.

No 2 Adjutant Genl Office

The Commander in Chief has the honor in forwarding the accompanying letter from the Officer Commanding Sappers and Miners, to state that in his opinion the Mess allowance granted to Corps ought to be exempted from Income Tax. At Home the Prince Regents allowance is not subjected to Income Tax and it is there what Mess allowance is in India.

Stating that the Govt. allowance has been charged with Income tax.
