No. 130. Read the following letter from F. N. MALTBY, Esq., Resident of Travancore and Cochin, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Cochin, 11th March 1861, No. 15:—

SIR,

I have the honor to acknowledge the Acting Secretary's letter of the 7th January last, No. 30, and to forward, for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council, the annexed correspondence on the subject. His Excellency will observe, that besides the discussion with Mr. Levinge, Captain Young gave rise to one with Mr. Thomas, the Collector of Coimbatore. In both cases, Captain Young appears to me to have been in the wrong; but I hope that the Government will consider Captain Young's apology to Mr. Thomas, and explanation in the other instance, to be sufficient and satisfactory.

From Colonel R. N. FAUNCE, Commanding Nair Brigade, to the British Resident in Travancore, dated Trevandrum, 16th February 1861, No. 26.

SIR,

With reference to your letter of the 11th instant, No. 190, I have the honor to forward an explanation from Captain Young on the subjects therein referred to.

From Captain F. YOUNG, Nair Brigade, to the Brigade Staff Officer, Trevandrum, dated Trevandrum, 15th February 1861.

SIR,

1. With reference to letter, No. 190 of the 11th instant, from the Resident of Travancore received with your letter of this date, I have the honor to state, that I have already in my letter of the 19th ultimo, explained "that I acted under the rules hung up in the generality of Bungalows provided with crockery, &c., in paying as I did." I conceived from the first that it was a question merely as to time of occupation, as is natural to be supposed from Mr. Levinge's to me, No. 2,153, of the 14th of November last, enclosed, and to the present moment I do not know, under what rules a higher rate than I originally paid has been demanded. Having paid the extra two Annas as ordered, I can only add that I regret this strange misunderstanding should have caused such needless trouble to Government.

2. As to Mr. Thomas, I admit that my letter to him was very discourteous, written though under the supposition that he had acted in the same light to me; but as a friend informs me that Mr. Thomas in his letter to me on the subject, explained his seeming incivility, by mentioning that the keys were dispatched to me with a hurried Memorandum, this I certainly overlooked, which coupled with the Resident's opinion that it was an act of civility on Mr. Thomas' part, induces me hereby to express my regret for writing to Mr. Thomas as I did, and for which I trust he will make due allowances.

From V. H. LEVINGE, Esq., Collector of Madura, to Captain YOUNG, Nair Brigade, Trevandrum, dated Madura, 14th November 1860, No. 2,153.

SIR,

In reply to your letter of the 22nd ultimo, I have the honor to inform you that the 2 Annas demanded of you as arrears of fees was not for occupying the Bungalow at Madura, but for that at Meyloor. You occupied it on the 10th September and only paid 6 Annas instead of 8, which is the proper amount of fees payable for the time you occupied the Bungalow which is furnished, and where extra servants employed.

ORDER THEREON, 9th April 1861, No. 788.

In the course of a short journey Captain Young was guilty of two acts of discourtesy; being also in the wrong, on both occasions, as to the previous facts of the case. The Government must hope that he will learn moderation and self-command. He will be warned that if he wishes to retain his position, he must be careful not to allow his name to come before the Government again in so discreditable a manner.

Secretary to Government.

With an order

In the course of a short journey Captain Young was guilty of two acts of discourtesy, being also, on both occasions, in the wrong as to the previous facts of the case - The Govt must hope that he will learn moderation & self command & avoid for the future errors so unbecomingly the profession to which he belongs. —

I think this minute is hardly strong enough for Young should be warned that if he wishes to be a gentleman he must be careful not to let his temper lash out.
