SIR,

Yellisetti Jaganaikloo, a Ryot of Golgondah, was suspected to have encroached upon certain waste lands; and a sist of Rupees 20 was collected thereon, by order of the Assistant Agent in charge, and credited in the public accounts of Fasli 1269. Jaganaikloo appealed against the Assistant's proceedings to me, and the Assistant's decision was reversed, as it turned out that the land was not waste, but part and parcel of the Ryot's holding, I have therefore the honor to request you will obtain me the sanction of Government, to refund the amount Rupees 20 to the said Ryot Jaganaikloo.
