Mem° re Rev. R° - 940.

To Rome 7 Rev.
send us a letter from Rev Hayes, enclosing a long memorial addressed to the Govt praying that some impropriety officer, mem-ber with the District may be sent to investigate the charges against him - I think it best to send out the papers for orders without delay -

2. I have read the Memorial - It consists for

- I do not see cause to alter the former decision of Lake the engineer out of the will be given to Hayes Capt Stevenson

Stevens Hayes - Every Postmaster of his acting his own accordance & Postmaster withdrawn - Letter the most part of an account of the writers' last sermons, or a narrative giving his account of his proceedings at Rammd.

3. No reason is given for why Mr. Lewis did not in-vestigate the charges, except in the concluding paragraph.
Mr. Hayes then imputes pre-judice against him to Mr.
Lewis, because he has taken information against him & refuse to give him copies; but words enquiries, Mr. H. states, rest-raining him, from various pro-ence; I has given evidence, viz No. 3 says, To the Manager of the Jamin -dari, who formerly was Hazri friend, is now his enemy - 4. Respecting the deposition, viz Lemings stated in his first letter that he took out from two persons, before taking any steps in the matter - this I ab-hor and is neither immoral nor improper - If Mr. Hazri is put under investigation, then depositions will be exam-ined by him, & he will be free to cross examine them -

5. It is worth while that Mr. Lewis's statement should be in a general way about Mr. Hayes, as to the manner, Mrs. L. claimed in a former letter that in the interview referred to in V. 31. of Mr. Hayes' Memorial, The Canada Woods Co. ~~disagrees to~~ disclaims ~~receiving~~ the latter. See his letter April 1. Page 29 & 30.

6. We are sorry that the Coll. or Trustees shall report in such case.

7. We should also send a small letter from Mr. Hayes; but that does not bear on the present question; it only asks that he may be replaced at once in charge of the Farm Lands.
