Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 16th May 1862.

No. 304. Read the following letter from R. E. MASTER, Esq., Officiating Director of Revenue Settlement, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 5th May 1862, No. 600/48:—

SIR,

During the absence on privilege leave of Mr. F. W. Morris, Deputy Director of Revenue Settlement in the Kistna District, the Senior Assistant Director, Mr. J. H. Cox, is in charge of the party. Mr. Morris, under the rules, forfeits his extra tent allowance for the period of his absence, and Mr. Cox requests to be permitted to draw the amount so forfeited, on the ground that he has to provide accommodation for the whole of the Deputy Director's Office establishment and records. The rules for the grant of tent allowance sanctioned by Government on the 20th March 1849, have hitherto applied only to Covenanted Civil Servants, and to the Military Assistants to the Agents to the Governor in Vizagapatam and Ganjam. In the ordinary Revenue Department a similar case to the present could not occur, for no Uncovenanted Officer has, as far as I am aware, ever been placed in charge of a Sub-Collector's or of a Head Assistant Collector's Office. The application being a novel one, I have the honor to submit it for the orders of Government, observing merely that the allowance having been forfeited by the Deputy Director, is available should they sanction its disbursement to Mr. Cox, who, in addition to the extra labor and responsibility which devolve upon him, is doubtless put to some expense while in charge of the party.

No. 305. ORDER THEREON, 16th May 1862, No. 1,082.

The Governor in Council considers it but fair that Mr. Cox should draw the higher rate of extra tentage, if he has duly provided accommodation at his own expense for the Deputy Director's Office establishment.

(Signed) J. D. SIM,
Secretary to Government.
