Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 19th May 1862.

No. 345. Read the following Endorsement of G. N. TAYLOR, Esq., Inám Commissioner, on Petition No. 2,701 of 1861, presented to Government by C. Venkatareddi of Nossum, Kovilguntla Táluq, Kurnool District, dated Vellore, 28th March 1862, No. 14:—

The Petitioner having made out a prima facie title, by right of purchase, to the Inám alluded to in the Petition, a title deed was issued in his name by the Commissioner under the impression that he was actually in possession of the Inám. It appears, however, that on a complaint before the Collector in 1858 regarding the possession of the Inám (the actual cultivator of the land being then one Gavalagadu) Petitioner was refused possession by that Officer; and that subsequently his claim was rejected by the District Munsif of Nundial in Original Suit No. 274 of 1859 and by the Civil Court in appeal, on the ground that Ináms are inalienable. As it is presumed that the time allowed for a special appeal in this case has also expired the title deed already issued will be now cancelled and the Inám will continue in the possession of the present holders.

No. 346. ORDER THEREON, 19th May 1862, No. 1,103.

1. A copy of the Inám Commissioner's Endorsement, dated 28th March 1862, will be furnished to Petitioner in No. 2,701 of 1861, and he will also be informed that the Government coincide in the Commissioner's decision.

2. The Government consider the conduct of the Inám Deputy Collector to have been very culpable. His enquiry must have been of a very superficial character or the facts of the case could not have escaped his notice.

(Signed) J. D. SIM,
Secretary to Government.

Endorsement on Petition No. 2901 of 1861 presented to Government by C. Venkata Reddi of Nosjeum, Rombzuntla Taluq, Kurnool District.—

The Petitioner having made out a prima facie title, by right of purchase, to the Inam alluded to in the Petition, a Title Deed was issued in his name by the Commissioner under the impression that he was actually in possession of the Inam. It appears, however, that on a Complaint before the Collector in 1858 regarding the possession of the Inám the actual Cultivator of the land being then one Sowalagadu, Petitioner was put in possession by that Officer, and that subsequently his claim was rejected by the District Munsiff of Amdial in a Suit No. 274 of 1859 and by the Civil Court in Appeal, on the ground that Inams are inalienable. As it is presumed that the time allowed for a Special appeal in this case has also expired the Title Deed already issued will be now cancelled and the Inám will continue in the possession of the present holders.
