Most respectfully beg to bring to your Kind notice the following urgent proceedings of the Sub Collector of Arcot District and of the Board of Revenue as Land lying in their said Monigary Village for Cultivation; but Mr Sullivan having been influenced by certain Party who are not the Monigars of their Village and who are over the said waste Land to them in spite of your Lordships Petitioners strong right to it as Monigars and first Durkastdars of the Land; That on an appeal having been preferred by your Lordships Petitioners to the Board

Board of Revenue, they look for the Report of the Said Collector of their District who after due enquiry on their Case look a Report to the Board of Revenue upholding your Lordships Petitioners Right to the Land and Recommending for the Restoration of the Same to your Lordships Petitioners; that while it is so, the Board of Revenue to the great Surprise of Your Lordships Petitioners Granted to them an Encroachment wherein stating their inability to investigate on their behalf that Your Lordships Petitioners are able to to Know that upon what state the Board

On their appeal to the Government Your Lordships Petitioners Took with the Same Success as they had from the Local Authorities

Petitioners are led to presume that No proof Can be had from any Authority in anyone which had been ever decided by any lower
