Read again Statement from the Acting Collector of Madras, dated 10th January 1862, No. 7, of a lapsed Yaumia in his District.

(In Cons. 13th January 1862, No. 219.)

Read also the following letter from B. CUNLIFFE, Esq., Collector of Madras, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Madras, dated Sydapet, 2nd April 1862, No. 97.

SIR,

With reference to the Board's Proceedings, 18th ultimo, No. 1,794, I have the honor to state that the distribution of the Yaumia, though long existing, has not been sanctioned. Payment has hitherto been made to the head of the family, to which position Syed Gulshun Ali has now succeeded, and he will continue to disburse their shares to the co-parceners.

1. Resolved that the above communications be submitted for the orders of Government, with the Board's recommendation that as the services attached to the Yaumia in question are still performed, the Collector's proposal to renew it in the name of Syed Gulshun Ali, the eldest son of the deceased Yaumiadár, be sanctioned.

2. The allowance, it will be observed, is Rupees 168 per annum, and though not sub-divided under any competent authority, is enjoyed in shares by all the members of the family.

3. On the sanction of Government as above recommended in paragraph 1 being granted, the Collector will pay to Syed Gulshun Ali the arrears due from 1st April 1861, up to which time the Yaumia was disbursed to his late father.
