Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
13th June 1862.

No. 193. Read the following letter from W. J. RAYNOR, Esq., Officiating Civil Paymaster, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort Saint George, 27th May 1862, No. 666:—

SIR,

In reply to G. O. dated 22nd instant, No. 1,133, I have the honor to state that Junior* Civil Servants in the same District, though not located at the same station as their superior Officers, are nevertheless considered, and have always been treated as immediate subordinates, subject to the operation of Section XXVII of the Civil Service Absentee Rules. Mr. E. B. Foord's allowances have been adjusted in accordance with the above rule.

* Assistants, Head Assistants, and Sub-Collectors.

No. 194, ORDER THEREON, 13th June 1862, No. 1,304.

Mr. Foord objects to the operation of Section XXVII of the Civil Service Absentee Rules in his case, on the ground that his head quarters as Sub-Collector of Bellary were 60 miles from the Collector's station. The rule, it appears, has always been considered applicable to Officers acting for their immediate superiors in the same District though not at the same station. His Excellency in Council sees no reason to relax this long established practice.

Acting Deputy Secretary to Government.

No 1304.

Sir — Board object to the operation of Section XXXII of the civil Service absentee Rules in his case on the ground that his head quarters per Gazette of Bellary were 60 miles from the collector's station. Result, it appears, has always been considered applicable to officers acting for their immediate superiors in the same district stopping at the same station — his Excellency in council sees no reason to alter this long established practice. —
