Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 19th June 1862.

No. 293. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 13th June 1862, No. 3,816:—

Read the following letter from C. W. READE, Esq., Collector of South Arcot, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Madras, dated Cuddalore, 21th March 1862, No. 56.

SIR,

1. With reference to the Board's Proceedings, dated 12th instant, No. 1,648, accompanied with an Order of Government of the 11th idem, No. 523, I have the honor to state that no savings can be made available from the provision in the Budget Estimate for 1861-62 on account of the Covenanted Staff of the Revenue Department, the amount originally fixed having been estimated in reference to the actual requirements of the District, minus the omitted difference of salary due to the Head Assistant.

2. There is however a surplus sum of Rupees 3,238 as shown in the enclosed "Memorandum" under B I; and if the Government permit, this money may be appropriated to meet the additional amount required to disburse the extra allowance of the Head Assistant, which will be about Rupees 2,100.

3. It will be observed that a sum of Rupees 9,000 is provided in the Budget on account of fixed and extra allowances of the Covenanted and Uncovenanted Revenue Officers, inclusive of Rupees 1,800, subsequently entered in the Supplemental Budget Estimate, while the actual expenditure will certainly fall short of this amount by no less a sum than Rupees 3,238 as exhibited in the Memorandum.

4. I solicit the instructions of Government as to whether I may make up Mr. Hutchins' salary from this available source.

In Cons. 12th March 1862, No. 1,431.

Ordered to be submitted to Government, with reference to their Order, dated 11th March 1862, No. 523. It appears from the Collector's letter that the increased allowance to the Head Assistant Collector can be met from the saving that is available from the provision made in the Budget for 1861-62 on account of fixed and extra allowances of the Covenanted and Uncovenanted Revenue Officers, and the Board request that the Collector may be authorized to provide for the charge from that source.
