Read again Tabular Report of the Collector of Cuddapah, dated 20th March 1862, on a lapsed Poligar pension in his District.

(In Cons. 25th March 1862, No. 1,707.)

With reference to the Proceedings of Board of Revenue, dated 10th ultimo, No. 2,371, I have the honor to inform you that the division of the annual allowance therein alluded to, was ordered to be made by Government on the 1st November 1833, as recommended by the Board on the 29th August 1833. A copy of the Statement on the subject is also herein enclosed.

STATEMENT of Claims to Poligar Pensions.

No. of Mr. Ross' Register.	Case.	Recommendation of the Principal Collector.	Opinion of the Board of Revenue.	Orders of Government.

66	An annual allowance of Rupees 175 pension; this was originally granted on the 12th July 1801, as Reddies' salary to Naurummah Naid, Poligar of Pootoor, on the resumption of that village. In Faslis 1218 and 1219 (A. D. 1808 and 1809) the names of Naurummah Naid, Moosul Naid and Honnoor Naid appear in Kisbundy accounts as enjoying the allowance. In Fasli 1220 (A. D. 1810) the allowance is entered in the Cavalee accounts as follows:—	Under these circumstances it is recommended that a pension of Rupees 100 be renewed in the name of Balasoobunnah his uncle performing the duties of Reddy, and maintaining him and his mother during his minority. The remaining portion (seventy-five Rupees) it is recommended may be either conferred in the way of pension on the two persons Nagapah Naid and Peddia (one of whom is among the co-sharers of Fasli 1220, and the other a descendant) who have been officiating hitherto as Reddies without any emolument in the way of Inám, or if discontinued as a pension that the said sum be assigned there from the Kistbundy of the village.	No. 66. The Board recommend that the renewal and distribution of the pension proposed by the Principal Collector may be sanctioned. By order of the Board of Revenue. (Signed) R. A. BANNERMAN, Acting Secretary. Revenue Board Office, Fort Saint George, 29th August 1833.	With reference to the further explanation contained in the Principal Collector's letter dated 8th ultimo, submitted by the Board of Revenue, under date the 17th ultimo, the Governor in Council authorizes the assignment of 100 Rupees in the name of Balasoobunnah, and the remaining 75 Rupees to the officiating Reddies. By order of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council. (Signed) D. ELIOTT, Offg. Secy. to Govt. Fort Saint George, 1st November 1833.

1. Resolved that the above communication be submitted for the consideration and orders of Government.

2. The pension in question, amounting to Rupees 37½ per annum, forms part of an annual allowance of Rupees 175, granted on the assumption of the country by the British Government to the original grantee Narama Naidu, in lieu of resumed Russooms, &c.

3. The division of the original amount was made under the sanction of Government, dated 1st November 1833, and the last recipient of the share now in question was Rungappa Naidu, the grandson of the elder brother of the original grantee, and the village Moonsiff of Pattur. He has left a widow aged 15 years in almost destitute circumstances, her only source of income being apparently Puttah land assessed at Annas 10, and the Board support the Collector's recommendation that sanction be granted for the payment to her of the arrears due to her deceased husband, viz., Rupees 95-13-10, from 1st February 1858 to 21st August 1860, as well as for the continuance of the pension of Rupees 37½ per annum to her for life from 22nd August 1860.

4. The Board view with much dissatisfaction the irregular proceeding of the Collector in withholding payment of the pension to the deceased for 2½ years for a supposed neglect of duty.

To A. Wedderburn, Esq., Collector of Cuddapah.

On referring to Mr. Ross' Register, forming an enclosure to his letter dated 21st February 1814, an annual allowance of 50 Pagodas, or Rupees 175, appears opposite to the name of "Nuremmah," No. 66. The Board presume that the pension of Rupees 37-8-0 on which orders are now required by the Collector, forms a part of that allowance, the remainder being enjoyed in two separate shares by the two other members of the family who are shown in the Genealogical table in the Collector's present report. If this be the case, the Collector will report when the division of the allowance was made quoting the numbers and dates of any correspondence that may have passed on the occasion.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 10th April 1862.

Read the following Tabular Report from A. WEDDERBURN, Esq., Collector of Cuddapah, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Madras, dated Royachoti, 20th March 1862, on a lapsed Poligar Pension in that District:—

Number.	Taluk and village, extent and value of the entire Inam.	When and by whom granted, name of the original grantee, Sunnuds or other documents in support of the grant.	Nature of the grant, charity, or service, if service, nature of the duty prescribed by the grant.	Name of the last holder, date of his decease, and the relationship in which he stood to the grantee.	Share enjoyed by the deceased, and that held by other members.	Family left by the deceased and name and age of the parties, their circumstances, and the means of subsistence possessed by the family.	Remarks.
1	Pattur in the Cuddapah Taluk; Rupees 37-8-0 per annum; No. 63 in Mr. Ross' register.	Granted on the assumption of the country by British Government to the original grantee Narama Naidu. No Sunnuds or other documents are forthcoming.	Granted in lieu of resumed Russums, &c. For support.	The last incumbent Ranngappa Naidu died on the 21st August 1860. Was the grandson of the elder brother of the original grantee.	No shares. The deceased enjoyed his portion of allowance entered in column 2.	1. Gangamma, widow of the deceased, aged 15 years. She is in poor condition, and holds Puttah land assessed at Annas 10.	The deceased was the Village Moonsiff of Pattur, and the pension enjoyed by him was ordered to be kept in deposit on account of the non-apprehension of robbers in a case of highway robbery committed within the limits of a neighbouring village, and no final orders were issued on the subject. The deceased has left a widow named Gangamma, and the Collector recommends that sanction be granted for the payment to her of arrears due, viz., Rupees 95-13-10 from 1st February 1858 to 21st August 1860, as well as the continuance of the pension, i. e., Rupees 3-2-0 per mensem, during her life-time from 22nd August 1860
