Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 30th June 1862.

No. 437. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 21st June 1862, No. 3,993:—

Read the following letter from G. L. MORRIS, Esq., Acting Collector of Tanjore, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Madras, dated Negapatam, 13th June 1862, No. 207.

SIR,

1. I have the honor to draw your attention to paragraph 4 of my letter, No. 148, dated 30th April last, and to state the following facts in connection therewith.

2. The Revenue Deputy Collector who lives at Mannargudi, has lately requested that he may be provided with accommodation for his Kacheri, or be allowed to draw extra tent allowance at 2 Rupees per diem.

3. As I was of opinion that the drawing of extra tent allowance would be putting the Government to a useless expense, I told the Deputy Collector to see if he could not hire a proper place, and he now informs me that he has procured a suitable building for 5 Rupees a month.

4. I have accordingly to request that the Board will be pleased to sanction this arrangement, and to allow the same to be charged in the monthly contingent bill.

5. It is true that extra tent allowance was not drawn by either myself, or any other special Assistant when at Mannargudi, but as the Deputy Collector is a native, and cannot fine accommodation for his Kacheri in his own house, it must either be found for him, or he must be allowed to draw extra tent allowance.

6. No special provision has been made for this charge in the Budget for 1862-63, but extra tent allowance has been fully provided for, and as the renting of a building is much the cheapest of the two, I do not imagine that any exception can be taken to the charge.

1. The proposal to rent an office at Rupees 5 per mensem in lieu of allowing extra tent for allowance to the Deputy Collector all the year at the rate of Rupees 2 per diem will be submitted for the sanction of Government.

2. The Board do not understand why extra tent allowance was hitherto not drawn at Mannargudi.
