Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 1st July 1862.

No. 9. Read the following letter from H. A. MANGLES, Esq., Acting Accountant General, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort Saint George, 20th June 1862, No. 73 :—

SIR,

1. I have the honor to enclose copy of a letter, dated 12th instant, No. 305, received from the Collector of Cuddapah, in which he represents that of the provision of Rupees 700 made by him in his Supplemental Budget Estimate for the past year, on account of house rent for the Head Assistant and Assistant Collectors, the sum of Rupees 320 only was allowed, and that this is less by 100 Rupees than that amount required on account of house rent for the Head Assistant Collector. He requests therefore that the full amount of house rent due to the Head Assistant Collector, viz., Rupees 420, may be allowed.

2. As the additional amount required is very trifling, I would suggest its being met from the savings under "B.I. and Revenue including Abkari," "Miscellaneous," under which head the amount of grant is Rupees 24,641, while the actual expenditure in last year was only Rupees 11,568.

From A. WEDDERBURN, Esq., Collector of Cuddapah, to H. A. MANGLES, Esq., Acting Deputy Auditor and Accountant General, Fort Saint George, dated on Circuit at Muddenpully, 12th June 1862, No. 305.

SIR,

In the Supplemental Budget Estimate for 1861-62, a sum of Rupees 700 was entered on account of house rent for Head Assistant, and Assistant Collectors, viz., Rupees 420 for the Head Assistant for the whole year at Rupees 35 per mensem, and Rupees 280 for the Assistant for eight months commencing from September 1861 to April 1862, both months inclusive. In Extract from the sanctioned Supplemental Budget, forwarded by your predecessor with his letter dated 28th April 1862, No. 5,047, Rupees 320 only is allowed on account of house rent for the Head Assistant Collector, which is less than the amount by Rupees 100. I have therefore the honor to request that the full amount of house rent, to be passed to the Head Assistant Collector, viz., Rupees, 420 should be allowed to stand.

(True Copy.)

(Signed) A. LAMORENDIERE,
Acting 2nd Assistant Accountant General.

No. 10. ORDER THEREON, 1st July 1862, No. 1,432.

The course proposed by the Acting Accountant General is approved.
