No. 13. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 23rd June 1862, No. 4,039 :--

Read the following letter from A. PURVIS, Esq., Collector of the Godavery District, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Madras, dated Cocanada, 21st May 1862, No. 67.

SIR,

1. I have the honor to state that an Establishment as per margin, was entertained in February last in the Cocanada Division, the same being absolutely necessary for the performance of the additional work devolved on the Sub-Magistrate in connection with the duty on Arts and Trades (License tax) under Act XVIII of 1861. The tax having shortly afterwards been abolished, the services of the Establishment were dispensed with. A sum of Rupees 18-13-0 is due to the above servants as detailed in the margin. The provision made in the Supplemental Budget Estimate for 1861-62 for such charges has not been sanctioned owing to the tax having been abolished; I therefore request you will be good enough to obtain the special sanction of Government for the disbursement of the amount in question: the charge can be met from the savings of the Land Revenue Establishment of the District.

No. 14. ORDER THEREON, 1st July 1862, No. 1,434.

The Government sanction Rupees 97-6-9 to be met from the savings of the Land Revenue Establishments in the Kistna District. They do not however understand why any separate charge should have been incurred for advertising the abolition of the tax. A Notification in the District Gazette would have been quite sufficient.

Acting Deputy Secretary to Government.
