named Hurry Sing, on the morning of the 27th } Here enter 30th May 1862, No. 149.
instant.

ORDER, No. 2307, 27th June 1862.

Lieutenant Wood having himself severely punished Peon Hurry Sing for his alleged misconduct, the Governor in Council sees no reason to interfere in the matter of the complaint preferred against the man in the foregoing letter. His Excellency cannot but observe, however, that Lieutenant Wood acted improperly in assaulting the Peon, who, it is to be remarked, was also on duty at the time.

2. The Governor in Council directs that heads of Offices will require their Peons while on duty, before and after Office hours, as well as during that time, to be properly clad and to wear their belts by which they may be recognized, and to instruct them to admit between 6 A. M. and 6-30 P. M., any Officer of the Department Public Works, who may call for the purpose of inspecting the Premises.
