Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 7th January 1862.

No. 26. Read the following letter from J. SILVER, Esq., Magistrate of Tinnevely, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Tinnevely, 11th November 1861, No. 405:—

SIR,

1. Two cases have recently come before me, in which Missionaries in this District have applied to have Fairs held on Sunday, changed to another day of the week, on account of the feelings of their converts being offended. In one, I found the question had been formerly raised during the time my predecessor, Mr. Bird, was Collector of the District. Mr. Bird himself visited the place, but as the people generally would not consent to the change from old established custom, he declined to interfere. In the other case, I find that a large portion of the community are Christians, which does not appear to be the case in the first instance quoted; but here also, the shop-keepers and dealers refuse to consent to any change from a custom they allege to have existed for the last 200 years.

2. I believe that in both instances, week days might be fixed without any particular inconvenience to the community; and as our Public Offices are closed on Sundays, it seems inconsistent to require the Police to keep order at a Fair on Sunday, if the same might be held on Monday. Before, however, giving any general order on the subject, I have the honor to request to be favored with the sentiments of the Government.

ORDER THEREON, 7th January 1862, No. 15.

No. 27.

From Government of India, 20th September 1859, No. 1,881, in Proceedings of this Government, 28th idem, No. 1,819.

The Collector of Tinnevely will be furnished, through the Board of Revenue, with a copy of the orders of the Supreme Government on the subject of this reference.

(Signed) C. G. MASTER,

Deputy Secretary to Government.
